City Burning Ban Lifted Monday

By order of Red Bluff Fire Chief Gerry Gray the residential burning ban in the City of Red Bluff will be lifted effective Monday, November 6, marking the end of the 2006 fire season. Starting Monday, city residents may burn leaves in the concrete portion of the street gutter only. All residents are reminded that the use of burn barrels is no longer authorized by the State of California Air Resources Board. Burning hours are set by the Tehama County Air Pollution Control Office. All city residents must call this office prior to any burning at 527-8320. No residential burning permits are required.

For more information on the City of Red Bluff burning regulations please call the fire department at 527-1126 or visit our web site at www.rbfd.org.
