Rescheduled Date for Red Bluff Fireworks Show

The annual July 4th Red Bluff Community Fireworks Show has been rescheduled for Saturday, September 20, 2008 at dusk. The show will be launched from the Red Bluff River Park and can be viewed from many areas in Red Bluff.

The show, which is sponsored by the non-profit "Red Bluff Volunteer Fire Department", was postponed out of concerns for public safety, including poor air quality and limited firefighting resources, as a result of the current thirteen day fire situation in Northern California.
